

News feature

The KRL Group

Quarter century for KRL

On 5th November the KRL Group in Hull celebrated its 25th anniversary with a new management team at the helm

Leading document solutions reseller, the KRL Group Ltd, is celebrating its 25th Anniversary this month. The Hull-based Group's growth has been rapid, with the main focus of business being in the Yorkshire and Lincolnshire area, although clients are as far north as Scotland and as far south as Essex. Last year saw the complete restructuring of management following a buyout in November 2009. George Baker assumed the role of Managing Director and Glen Parrish became Sales Director

Their 25th year has certainly been an eventful one, not only due to the continued external turbulence caused by the economic downturn, but also due to an office move from Hull to Willerby, a change of name from Kingston Reprographics Ltd to KRL Group and the change of management.

Managing Director George Baker says he plans to keep the KRL Group doing what it does best. "At KRL Group we are a forward-thinking, constantly developing, local company, which has continued to grow and remain profitable despite the recent economic downturn.

"Our staff are the backbone of the business and are passionate about what they do, so we have built up an enviable reputation across Yorkshire. 2010 is an exciting time for KRL Group, launching new products and services, forging new relationships with other companies across the region and laying the foundations to ensure that in 25 years from now KRL Group will be even stronger."

Over the past 25 years the KRL Group has provided customers with the highest levels of customer service and engineering support. By building on these foundations the company has moved from strength to strength, now boasting annual sales in excess of £2 million with over

'Our staff are the backbone of the business and are passionate about what they do'

40 staff. It aims to provide a total solution for each customer's document imaging requirements.

KRL Group recently became the patrons of North Ferriby United Football Club. The club enjoyed a superb season in 2009/10, finishing 4th in the Unibond Premier Division, their highest ever position. The club said of the new partnership; "KRL is a service-led office and business solutions provider and has signed up to equip North Ferriby with a state of the art multi functional device.

"The equipment can be used to copy, print and scan and will give the club a truly professional image. This is another truly amazing deal for us and provides a document capability we could previously have only dreamed of!"

KRL Group will continue to work and support local charities and companies going forward. ■

Contact details

www.krlgroup.net

KRLS's team of engineers have been crucial to its success

Directors George Baker and Glen Parrish with the KRL team